Introduction

JCFS Chicago provides Community Education events to enhance understanding of issues that affect people with disabilities, promote inclusion, and introduce resources available. We host informational presentations on topics that are relevant to individuals with disabilities, their families and support networks, professionals, and the larger community. Currently presentations are only offered virtually through Zoom.

All proposals will be reviewed, and the Community Education coordinator will inform you on the status of your proposal. We would love to partner with you.

Presentation proposals can be submitted on a rolling basis. All proposals will be reviewed, and the Community Education coordinator will inform you of the status of your proposal.

If you are interested in presenting on a topic, we would love to partner with you.

SFPD can offer a $100 speaker honorarium per presentation, but we appreciate in-kind donations of service.

_____ Yes, I (we) accept the speaker honorarium.

_____ I (we) offer our presentation in-kind.
